IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear cousin, Raymond Clay, who departed this life one year ago, June 24, 1914. Just one year ago today.

Since our dear cousin passed away; We saw him suffer, heard his sighs; With aching hearts and weeping eyes.

We saw him sinking hour by hour, Yet could not stay death's awful power.

Although you're gone you are not forgotten, Nor shall your memory ever fade; Loving hearts shall always linger Round the grave where you were laid.

PAULINE and PERLE MARIE CLAY.

MERCY HOSPITAL ASKS DONATIONS

Give What You Can or Such as You Can Spare of Anything.

We are in receipt of a communication from Dr. Katherine B. Richardson, Corresponding Secretary of Mercy Hospital, asking that we respectfully call your attention to the following:

Mercy Hospital is located in Kansas City, Mo., at the corner of Missouri and Highland avenues; incorporated under the laws of Missouri; receives children under 16 years of age only; devoted to the care of sick, crippled, deformed and ruptured children and controlled by a Board of Trustees. It is non-sectarian, and the Medical Staff consists of 13 eminent physicians.

The Cor. Secretary writes as follows:

"Mercy Hospital, an institution supported entirely by contributions, and which last year gave 19,627 free days treatment to sick and crippled children, is making its annual appeal for such help as child-loving people feel that they can afford to give. Money, chickens, eggs, fruit, canned goods, potatoes, and in fact anything (except children's clothing) which sick children might use, is acceptable.

"The institution recently has been

THE LOCUSTS ARE COMING

Warning of the expected re-appearance of the 17-year locust in June has been issued by the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C.

Little actual damage to nurseries and young orchards is expected from the insect.

While the expected brood of cicadas is said not to be an important one, it covers a much wider territory than any of the other 17-year broods.

This particular insect is due to appear in scattered localities, covering much of the Northern and Central States lying between the Hudson and the Mississippi, extending along the Appalachian elevated plateau into Northern Georgia and South Carolina.

It made its last appearance in this particular locality in 1898.

BUSINESS UNIVERSITY NOTES

Miss Lulu Black, on last Friday, passed her third or graduating test in shorthand and has accepted a position in the headquarters of the local Option League at Flat River.

President Moothart was in Desloge last Saturday looking after prospective students.

Mr. Lynde, last week, passed the first test given by Miss Lawrence.

Messrs. Lawrence Higgins and Errol Leadbetter have found it necessary to give up their school work until fall. They both have us to understand that they would keep on the lookout for new students. This is the spirit that should be shown by all former and present students. Loyalty is one of the keystones of every office, in fact in every line of industry, and since students and patrons expects us, as school men, to be constantly looking after the interests of our students, so we, in return, have a right to expect our students to be on the quiver for new business from month to month. In other words this is strictly justice, one to the other, or might be probably termed full-fledged reciprocity.

Warden Moothart did stenographic work for the Flat River Furniture and Undertaking establishment Monday. Chas. English, one of our former graduates, is manager of this large business enterprise.

Kind reader, if you are interested in business education, and want one of our large, beautiful, illustrated, expensive catalogues, free, mail us your request without delay. Remember, this is one of the most elaborate catalogues sent out by any business school, and should be in the homes of all who have sons or daughters interested in preparing themselves to meet most successfully the unknown future. Let us have your request.

Special discount on tuition rates to those who expect to enroll in September, has been extended up to and including July 1, hence all others wanting to take advantage of this liberal discount, and do not fully understand the conditions, should write to us at once—it will pay you.

The "Times" job department is equipped to do neat book and job printing upon short notice and in the highest style of workmanship.
